

Our family supports the do not call list, this list is what made it so our land line was worth keeping. We otherwise were considering converting to cellular only. The group trying to abolish it should not be allowed to do so.